

Yasmin Leon

(123.456.7890) | yal23@nau.edu

Qualifications Summary

Bilingual in Spanish and English

Dedicated and self-motivated demonstrated by GPA of 3.98

Experience in different work settings has created a diverse skill range

Education

Northern Arizona University, Honors College

Anticipated Graduation: May 2022

Degree: Exercise Science, Bachelor of Science

GPA: 3.98

Relevant Experience

Fellow, NAU Research Initiative for Scientific Enhancement August 2020-present

- Created a revised Standard Operating Procedure for own research project
- Presented scientific methods and results of mini-pilot research project
- Led laboratory discussion of scientific article
- Engage in laboratory procedures that include peripheral blood mononuclear cells isolation, in-vitro cell treatment of sulforaphane, and gene expression assays

Vice President, Exercise Science Club

August 2020-present

- Plan, coordinate, and recruit guest speakers for biweekly meetings
- Co-facilitate hour club meetings on a biweekly basis
- Collect attendance of 30 club members
- Coordinate information of forthcoming events to secretary for inclusion in meeting bulletin and to social media chair for electronic notices

Intern, Jose Diaz Tile Inc.

May-August 2019

- Addressed potential and current customers on a daily basis
- Reviewed and interpreted 20 workers' compensation claims on a weekly basis
- Ensured time and attendance entries for payroll were accurately inputted and recorded

Achievements

Dean's List 2018-2020

Academic Achievement Award 2018-2020

Lumberjack Scholars Award ($10,390) 2018-present

Steele Foundation Award ($4,000) 2018-present

Helen Oswalt Memorial Scholarship for Exercise Science ($520) 2020-2021

Activities

Exercise Science Club, Treasurer, Vice President 2018-present

LatinX Student Union, Member 2019-present

College Success Arizona, Member 2018-present

NAU Research Initiative for Scientific Enhancement, Fellow 2020-present